WOMAN IS HELD FOR GRAND JURY

By United States Commissioner for Opening Sister's Letter.

A quarrel between two sisters residing here was ventilated before John W. Mason, Jr., United States court commissioner, at Fairmont Monday, after E. D. Hupp, United States deputy marshal, had taken Mrs. Addie L. Davis there to be given a hearing on the charge of violating the postal laws.

The testimony in the case was to the effect that Mrs. Davis, who is young and very pretty, had opened a letter belonging to her sister, Ollie Nester. It seems that Mrs. Davis had been residing at the home of her mother, and was employed in a telephone office here. The sister, Ollie Nester, requested that Mrs. Davis bring her mail to her one evening, and Mrs. Davis mistook the letter of her sister for one of her own when she opened it in a picture show, she was attending. As she and her sister were quarreling, she did not turn the money over to her sister that evening, as she feared her sister would accuse her of stealing, but kept the money and the letter until such a time as her sister should get over her anger.

In the mean time the sister found the letter in her sister's trunk, and Mrs. Davis then explained the matter, and turned the $5.00 over to her mother to give to her sister, as her sister would not accept it.

Later the sister had a warrant issued for the girl's arrest. The whole affair seemed to be the result of a family quarrel, and relatives, who went to Fairmont and went on the girl's bond of $500 after she had been held for the April term of the grand jury at Martinsburg, stated that such was the case. The testimony of the witnesses plainly showed that there had been a family quarrel, Mrs. Davis having left her home and gone to the home of her brother after the quarrel.

The complainant and defendant are both daughters of Mrs. Everissa Nester of the city.

FAIRMONT

Young Men's Christian Association Basketball Five Defeat Wesleyan.

The Fairmont Young Men's Christian Association basketball quint defeated the Wesleyan College quint in the fastest game of basketball that has been played in the state so far this season, at Buckhannon Monday night, the final score being 23 to 26.

The Fairmont team, accompanied by more than 400 rooters from this city and Fairmont, went to Buckhannon last night with blood in their eyes, and before they returned the Fairmonters had sweet revenge for the defeat Wesleyan handed them at Fairmont several weeks ago.

The fact that the Fairmont team won the game last night gives the Scholastics a better chance for the state championship, as they will play the Fairmont team here in a week or two, and if they can defeat the Fairmont team here they will be tied with them for the state championship, and the tie will have to be played off, the victors being the state champions.

The members of the Scholastic team attended the game last night and saw the working of both teams, and will start hard practice from now until they meet both the Fairmont and Wesleyan teams.

The line-up was as follows:

Wesleyan.	Fairmont.
Toothman	F. Arnett
Garrett	F. Barrington
Archer	C. Scott

Morrison	G. John

SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

Two Women Tell How They Escaped the Surgeon's Knife by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Swarthmore, Penn. — "For fifteen years I suffered untold agony, and for one period of nearly two years I had hemorrhages and the doctors told me I would have to undergo an operation, but I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am in good health now. I am all over the Change of Life and cannot praise your Vegetable Compound too highly. Every woman should take it at that time. I recommend it to both old and young for female troubles." — Mrs. EMILY SUMMERSGILL, Swarthmore, Pa.

Baltimore, Md. — "My troubles began with the loss of a child, and I had hemorrhages for four months. The doctors said an operation was necessary, but I tried it and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The medicine has made me a well woman and I feel strong and do my own work." — Mrs. J. R. PICKING, 1260 Sargent St., Baltimore, Md.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, it is not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?
